- Frequency of contact with advisees
- Use and dissemination of appropriate information sources
- Mastery of institutional regulations, policies, and procedures
- Recognition of nominee for outstanding advising or advising information
- Monitoring student progress toward academic & career goals
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Appropriate referral activity
- Holistic advising vs. course scheduling
- Participation in workshops & trainings on advising

NOMINATION PROCEDURES

Nominations should contain adequate factual or descriptive material to enable the Selection Committee to ascertain the extent to which an individual meets the award criteria listed above. The completed nomination package should include:

1. A summary of the nominee's qualifications. The nominator should summarize the extent to which the nominee meets the award criteria, citing letters of support, data, or other materials illustrative of exemplary performance as an advisor.
2. Appendices: The appendices support the summary of nominee's qualifications. Appendices, in addition to the required support letter from the faculty members Dean/Supervisor, should include, but are not necessarily limited to:
    a. Informational materials created or developed by the nominee.
    b. Up to eight letters of support from advisees, colleagues, and administrators.
    c. At least three letters of support must be from current or former students (these count towards the eight-letter maximum).
3. Nominee's resume, or vita, that clearly identifies advising-related actions and activities including participation in professional developmental events. Please limit entries to material that pertains directly to academic advising, presenting relevant information from the nominee's overall resume/vita.

4. A personal statement on academic advising by the nominee explaining how experience meets criteria listed above.
5. A Faculty member who is interested must submit an application in PDF form to the Office of the Provost and Executive Vice President (email Advisingawards@provost.msstate.edu) by the deadline of 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 17, 2027.
